Apartment on West End Ave.

Professionals Active-Resell at Profit Properties Taken Recently.

The home of the late Maggie Mitchell, the American actress who died last March at the age of eighty years, was sold yesterday. It is the Standoche apartment at the southwest corner of West End avenue and 102d street, which the actress built herself some years ago when she found that there were few houses in New York that she considered attractive homes from her standpoint. Daniel H. Jackson, operator, is the buyer of the property which has been held by the Mitchell heirs, the Margaret J. Mace estate, in the market for sale at $200,000. E. H. Ludlew & Co., who negotiated the sale, said yesterday that the house was gem of colonial architecture and a rell constructed and arranged house. fine Mitchell bought the corner, a site 6 feet on the avenue and 75 feet on the street, shortly after she retired from the stage back in 1895. In providing a home for herself, she had in mind also, welfare of actors and actresses of the better class, who desired a hone and not a hotel suite. The house is eight stories high and arranged in eight suites of ten rooms and three baths, each suite covering a floor. Miss Mitch-ell with her husband whose stage name was Charles Abbott, occupied one of the floors until her death last March. corner a prominence which no other building on the street had. Every one knew it as the home of Maggie Mitchell, the hoyden soubrette in "Fanchon the STUDIOS IN EAST 63D STREET.

Dr. Burrill B. Crohn has sold his four-story and basement dwelling, or lot 19x100.5, between Madison and Park avenues. RETAILERS COMBINE ON FOREIGN BUYING Manufacturers Also Join $25,-000,000 Organization to Consolidate Purchases.

Plans to consolidate their buying in Europe instead of each firm operating separately are being considered by Amer-ican retailers. A proposition has been submitted to have a large buying service established with headquarters in London. raris and St. Gall. It is said to be meet-ing with favorable consideration. More than sixty prominent retailers in many sections of the country are mid to have already signified their willingness to join the organization. Alfred Fantl, resident buyer here, told of the plan yesterday. He said manufac-turers will also be served by the organization, and that several such New York firms have made arrangements to become affiliated. He said the organization will have a backing of approximately $25,-

French Exposition Here.

The Franco-American Board of Commerce, just organized, intends to estab-lish a permanent exposition of French products in this city. The purpose of the board will be to foster trade between the United States and France, where offices will be opened.

It is believed by the board that discriminatory tariff legislation will do much to stifle trade intercourse and the board will use its influence against the enactment of such laws.

The French Ambassador, J. J. Jusserand, has been elected honorary presi-dent of the organization. Emile Utard of H. & G. Klotz & Cie. is president.

Manufacturers Back Executive Body.

Any step the executives of the Dress and Waist Manufacturers Association may take in reference to the disputes with labor which are now agitating the industry, will be backed up by the mem-bership. This was decided at a mass meeting of the organization yesterday. Equal distribution of labor is said to be one of the principal obstacles in the way of the manufacturers and the employees settling their differences.

Retailer Sees Price Recession Under Way

HICAGO, Dec. 27.—George Lytton of Chicago, one of the dealers in men's clothing and fur-nishings, believes a recession in prices from the war maximum is already under way.

Mr. Lytton so testified to-day as a witness in the packing house arbitra-tion. Jobbers in woollens, he said, are making voluntary reductions in The witness said that a suit which sold for $20 in March, 1917, now costs from $22 50 to $25, and a $50 suit, $65. Shoes worth $5 in 1917 now bring $7.50.
